

Biography
James P. Dollard

In March 2023, James Dollard assumed and currently serves as the Program Manager, Marine Corps Insider Threat Program. Prior to this, James Dollard served as the Marine Corps Insider Threat Program Hub Chief since November 2021.

He is a retired Marine Corps Lieutenant Colonel, having served 28+ years in the infantry, military police, and recruiting communities. His final assignment prior to retirement in November 2020 was serving as the Commanding Officer, 3rd Law Enforcement Battalion.

James Dollard received a bachelor's degree in business administration from Campbell University, Buies Creek, NC (2003) and a Master of Business Administration from National University, San Diego, CA (2007).

He is married to Gisela Castro, and they have two children, Gerald (33) and Kevin (28), and two grandsons, Luke (11) and Logan (6).