

WELCOME TO THE PENTAGON

2021 ORIENTATION AND GUIDE

PENTAGON RESERVATION COVID-19 OPERATIONS

Right now, the Pentagon is operating in a unique COVID-19 environment. The Department of Defense (DoD) implemented precautionary measures when the COVID-19 pandemic began and continues to monitor and assess the situation carefully with the assistance of expert guidance from the Centers for Disease Control, and local, state, and federal authorities.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Pentagon Reservation adopted the Department's Health Protection Condition framework known as HPCON levels. They range from Alpha to Delta, and each one has specific guidelines for employees to follow. You will find a detailed list of these guidelines on the Washington Headquarters Services (WHS) website: www.WHS.mil.

Hours of operation and Operating Status for certain services on the Pentagon Reservation are subject to change. Log on to www.whs.mil/coronavius for most up to date information.

Stay safe, stay healthy and welcome to the Pentagon.

THE PENTAGON: NERVE CENTER OF AMERICA'S DEFENSE ESTABLISHMENT

THE PENTAGON RESERVATION

Conceived in the summer of 1941 and completed at breakneck speed in only sixteen months, the Pentagon initially fulfilled a seemingly conventional task. Covering nearly 29 acres, it provided much-needed office space for thousands of War Department employees scattered in buildings and temporary structures in Washington, DC and the surrounding region. On any given day in the years that followed, upwards of 30,000 civilian and military personnel could be found winding their way through the building's nearly eighteen miles of concentric rings (5), corridors (10), and hallways (too many to count). Functionality and ease of use had guided the architects at the outset. Their reasoning emphasized efficiency in simple geometrical terms that maximized usable space and minimized the walking distance between any two interior points. The pentagonal shape struck just the right balance. With some knowledge of the building's interior, employees on foot could (and still can) expect to traverse distances between locations in only seven or eight minutes, albeit at a brisk pace.

Originally intended to be a temporary home for the War Department, the Pentagon got a new lease on life after World War II. In 1947, Congress passed the National Security Act, which merged the War and Navy Departments and added a third military branch--the Air Force. Headquartered in the Pentagon, the new National Military Establishment (renamed the Department of Defense in 1949) managed America's global military posture during a period of heightened international tension that culminated in the onset of the Cold War and a protracted arms race with the Soviet Union.

Nearly fifty years of preparing for, and in some cases, engaging in military conflicts across the globe took a heavy physical toll on the Pentagon as aging infrastructure crumbled and critical communications and computer technologies vital to national security wore out. By the late 1980s, as the Cold War drew to a close and the Soviet Union drifted toward collapse, calls for a building-wide renovation grew louder until Congress appropriated funds to pay for a complete rebuilding effort.

The first fully renovated section of the Pentagon, covering more than one million square feet, opened early in 2001, and by September, nearly four thousand civilian and military personnel had moved back into their new, updated offices. Then, everything changed. On the morning of September 11, al Qaeda terrorists hijacked American Airlines Flight 77 shortly after it departed from nearby Dulles International Airport. At 9:37 AM, the Boeing 757, with 58 passengers and crew members on board, crashed into the newly updated section of the Pentagon, killing 125 and leaving many more injured.

Despite the heavy damage inflicted that day, the Pentagon remained open and fully functional. Construction crews labored at a feverish pace for the next year to rebuild the destroyed section of the building, which officially reopened on September 11, 2002. Renovation of the remaining four sections continued through the rest of the decade, ending in 2011.

In addition to its signature shape, the Pentagon's exterior walls showcase the stripped classical style that is common among other large government buildings constructed at the same time in Washington, D.C. Stylistic and architectural attributes also combined with a unique history to bring the Pentagon widespread recognition. In 1989, the U.S. Department of the Interior's National Park Service added the Pentagon to its National Register of Historic Places. Three years later, in 1992, the agency accorded the building coveted status as a National Historic Landmark.

For more information about the history of the Pentagon, the Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD), and the Department of Defense, please visit the OSD Historical Office website: <https://history.defense.gov/>.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◆ The Pentagon provides a working environment for approximately 26,000 military and civilian personnel.
- ◆ The Pentagon was built in anticipation of U.S. entry into World War II and completed in 1943.
- ◆ The architectural style of the Pentagon, which earned a place on the National Register of Historic Places, is termed "stripped classical." In the early 20th century, the classical style of architecture was often used in federal buildings, and was thought to represent the dignity of democratic institutions.
- ◆ The Pentagon encircles a five-acre center courtyard and has 17-1/2 miles of corridors and hallways.

The Pentagon Circulator (Route 10N and Route 10S)

The Pentagon Circulator provides free, convenient transportation for all personnel on the Pentagon Reservation. The Circulator follows 2 separate routes, one that services parking lots on the north side of the Pentagon and a second, separate route, that services parking lots on the building's south side along Army-Navy Drive. Both routes begin at the PTC, Bus Bay U8, on the upper platform. The Pentagon Circulator will pick up and drop off passengers at specified locations along the two routes.

The Circulator operates weekdays from 6:00 am to 6:00 pm and runs every 10 minutes. The last run leaves the PTC at 5:50 pm. The Circulator bus does not run on weekends and holidays.

The Pentagon Circulator is accessible to those who have mobility impairments. Inform the driver of your needs and destination. For additional information, please call 571-372-7124.

For DoD Shuttle Program questions, please call: 571-372-7124, or send an email to whs.pentagon.fsd.mbx.dod-shuttle-bus@mail.mil. Please note that, due to COVID-19 precautionary measures, DoD Shuttle Program Office personnel are currently teleworking. If you are unable to reach the hotline, please leave a message or contact the staff via email.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◆ The Pentagon Reservation comprises the Pentagon, Mark Center, and the Raven Rock Mountain Complex in Pennsylvania. Except for Raven Rock, the Reservation is accessible by mass transit (train and bus), bicycle, the Hayes Street/Pentagon tunnel pedestrian path, and automobile. Shuttle buses and vehicle parking are available for those with mobility impairments. Leased buildings occupied by DoD personnel in the National Capital Region (NCR) are generally accessible by mass transit, shuttle buses and automobile (parking is limited and generally at personal expense).
- ◆ Public parking is not available at the Pentagon, but metered street parking is available in Crystal City and Pentagon City. Parking may be available in commercial lots a short walk or Metro ride from the Pentagon. Those who work at the Pentagon may apply for permit parking in Pentagon lots.
- ◆ The Pentagon Transit Center (PTC), the largest transit hub in Northern Virginia, is located on the east side of the building. Metro's Yellow and Blue lines stop at the underground Pentagon station, and Metro, DoD, contractor, and commuter buses stop at street level on regular published schedules. The Pentagon is a short walk from the Pentagon City Metro Station, through a pedestrian tunnel under I-395 at the Hayes Street parking lot.
- ◆ After 8:00 PM during the week and at all times on the weekend, the Pentagon entrance to the Metro (called the Metro Entrance Facility (MEF)) is closed and the outer doors of the building are secured. Employees who work in the building after 8:00 PM can access the Metro station from outside if they exit Corridor 2 on the second floor. The second floor entrance at Corridor 2 is also accessible to employees who arrive at the Pentagon via Metro during off-hours.

GENERAL INFORMATION:

- Shuttle buses are for official use only. Official use includes meetings and conferences, but does not include transportation from domicile to duty station, otherwise referred as home-to-work. Other examples of unauthorized use include the provision of DoD Shuttle Buses to attend private social functions, or to go to, from, or between locations on personal business. Modified shuttles may be used to transport authorized personnel between their office and mass transit facilities, otherwise known as commuting. There are currently four modified shuttles that service the PTC and Mark Center Station:
- DoD Route 6 – Arlington Hall Station (National Guard Bureau)
- WMATA Metrobus 7M (Pentagon-Mark Center)
- DASH AT-2X (King Street Metrorail Station – Mark Center)
- Franconia-Springfield-Mark Center Shuttle (Franconia Springfield Metrorail Station, Springfield Town Center and Mark Center)
- Display the proper form of Identification to take full advantage of the Shuttle Bus Program. Examples of acceptable identification include the following:
 - Common Access Card (CAC)
 - Active Duty Armed Forces Identification Card
 - Valid DoD Civilian Identification Card
 - *Route 12 is only accessible with the Intelligence Community badge
- No eating, drinking, or smoking is allowed on buses. Use of cameras and video cameras, including cell phone cameras, is prohibited. Pentagon bus stops, including stops for the Pentagon Circulator, are located at the PTC Platform. Schedules may vary, depending upon weather and traffic conditions.
- During a pandemic or periods of heightened security, or when deemed necessary, riders may be required to consent to a search in order to ride buses, or boarding procedures may be modified to ensure health and safety of shuttle operators and passengers. We recommend arriving at any shuttle stop 10 minutes prior to the scheduled departure time.

DRIVING TO THE PENTAGON

It is recommended that directions to and from specific areas of the building be obtained in advance of travel. For additional driving directions, please see the DoD website: <https://pentagontours.osd.mil/Tours/directions.html>.

PENTAGON PARKING

Parking at the Pentagon

The Parking Management Office (PMO) is in the Pentagon Services Division of the WHS Executive Services Directorate. The PMO administers and manages the Pentagon Reservation parking program (Pentagon, Mark Center, and Suffolk Building). All vehicles parked on the Pentagon Reservation must be registered in the parking database with an authorized, assigned parking permit or vehicle parking clearance. Most parking permits and clearances are issued through the employee's parking representative/sponsoring agency. The agency's parking representative contact information can be found at <https://my.whs.mil/services/pentagon-parking-information>

Executive Parking

Executive parking spaces are allocated to senior officials based on their assigned positions in the Order of Precedence. Upon approval, a parking permit will be issued to the senior official for entry through the Vehicle Access Control Point (VACP) for each parking VACP location. All Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD) offices have representatives who can assist incoming officials with parking-related matters.

Unprecedented events, such as the COVID-19 pandemic, will impact transportation. Temporary Clearances allow Officials to park in South Lane 26, South Secure Visitor lane, and North Secure Executive Clearance lot. Temporary Executive parking clearances will not impact Mass Transit Benefit Program (MTBP) enrollment.

The WHS/PMO office is located in Room 2D1039 on the Pentagon Concourse. Hours of operation are from 7:00 am to 4:30 pm, Monday through Friday. The PMO can be reached via telephone at 703-697-6251.

Public Parking

There is no public parking at the Pentagon. Metered parking is available in the streets of Crystal City and Pentagon City. Public parking may be available in commercial lots a short walk or Metro ride to/and from the Pentagon. No publically available shuttle service is provided to or from the Pentagon. However, the Pentagon is a short walk from the Pentagon City Mall via a pedestrian tunnel.

Public parking is available for visitors to the Pentagon Memorial. The Hayes Street parking lot is open to the public nightly Monday through Friday between 5:00 PM and 5:00 AM, and all day Saturday, Sunday, and holidays (until 5:00 am the next business day). In addition, North Rotary Road has "Kiss and Drop" locations for Metro commuters that visitors can use to access the Pentagon Memorial. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Pentagon tenant organizations are using the Hayes Street lot to provide parking for their employees.

Pentagon Parking Permits

Pentagon parking is governed by Administrative Instruction (AI) 88 "Pentagon Reservation Vehicle Parking Program", August 26, 2009. Those who work at the Pentagon may apply for permit parking in accordance with AI-88. Pentagon Reservation parking lots are controlled, and authorized parking is enforced to provide a secure environment for all personnel. All individuals and the license numbers of their vehicles must be registered when parked on the Pentagon Reservation.

Pentagon parking is a privilege, not an entitlement. Each major Pentagon Component (OSD/WHS, Army, Air Force, Navy/Marines, and the Joint Chiefs of Staff) has a designated Component Parking Representative (CPR) who manages a specific allocation of parking permits. Please check with your office's CPR to apply for a permit (several types are issued). Parking representative contact information for Pentagon components can be found at <https://my.whs.mil/services/pentagon-parking-information>.

Parking spaces are available to employees with mobility impairments. Employees who require mobility impairment parking should contact their designated CPRs. See the website above for more information. Visitors who require mobility impairment parking should contact the primary sponsor coordinating their visit. During the COVID-19 pandemic, impaired individuals can self-declare their need for parking via email. Attach a picture of a state issued license plate or state hangtag and submit it to the following group mailbox of the Pentagon: whs.pentagon.fsd.mbx.parking-program@mail.mil.

There are five parking spaces to accommodate Pentagon Memorial visitors with disabilities available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, in Lane 1 of South Parking, close to the Pentagon Memorial. (Please see the "Pentagon Memorial" and "Other Points of Interest" section, under "Memorial Parking for People with Mobility Impairments".)

Parking for the DiLorenzo TRICARE Health Clinic and the Pentagon Library and Conference Center is easily accessible to both facilities. Van/carpool employees must apply for and obtain parking permits in person from the PMO, Room 2D1039, Pentagon Concourse.

Anyone with an N-C parking permit can park in the Connector Lot (also known as the Boundary Channel Drive Lot.) This lot has a pedestrian walkway to the Pentagon River Terrace entrance and is therefore convenient to Corridors 8, 9, and 10.

The Pentagon Parking map can be found at Pentagon Parking Map (link is CAC enabled).

All personnel (non-executives) not supported by an agency permit during the COVID-19 pandemic are eligible for temporary parking passes. The COVID-19 Temporary Parking Clearance form can be found at <https://www.whs.mil/Coronavirus/#Parking>.

If you parked in the wrong Pentagon lot and your car is towed, call the Pentagon Force Protection Agency (PFPA) at: 703-697-4151. If your car is booted, refer to the telephone number on the window citation or call the POC.

Official Visitor Parking

Parking arrangements for visitors on official business should be made through the primary sponsor point of contact who is coordinating the visit. The visitor must provide their full name, vehicle license plate number, date and time of arrival, office name, room number, telephone number, and the name of the person to be visited.

PENTAGON ACCESS

The Metro Entrance Facility (MEF), the entrance nearest the Metro station, is located near Corridor 10, first floor. When departing the Pentagon, it is easiest to access the MEF on the second floor, near Corridors 1 or 10 (whichever is closest to your office), and take the down escalator to the first floor and exit the building.

MEF hours of operation are 5:00 AM to 8:00 PM, Monday through Friday; it is closed on weekends and holidays. If you arrive at or depart from the Pentagon when the MEF is closed, you will need to use a 24-hour access point.

Corridor 2, Pedestrian Bridge entrance on the second floor, is closest to the Metro station. Once you exit the security checkpoint, walk left around the building to reach the Metro station.

If you drove and parked at the Pentagon, select the Corridor 2 Entrance for South Parking or the Corridor 8 Entrance for North Parking.

Adjustments to the building access/egress points are posted in bulletins published by the Pentagon Building Management Office (PBMO). They are posted on the WHS website: <https://my.whs.mil/services/Building-Circular-Library#tabs-0-37994200-1494249706-2>

THE ENTRANCES WITH 24-HOUR ACCESS/EGRESS:

- ◆ Corridor 2 Pedestrian Bridge Entrance on the second floor, E-ring; located on the South side of the building.
- ◆ Mall Entrance on the second floor, E ring; located on the North side of the building between corridors 6 and 7.

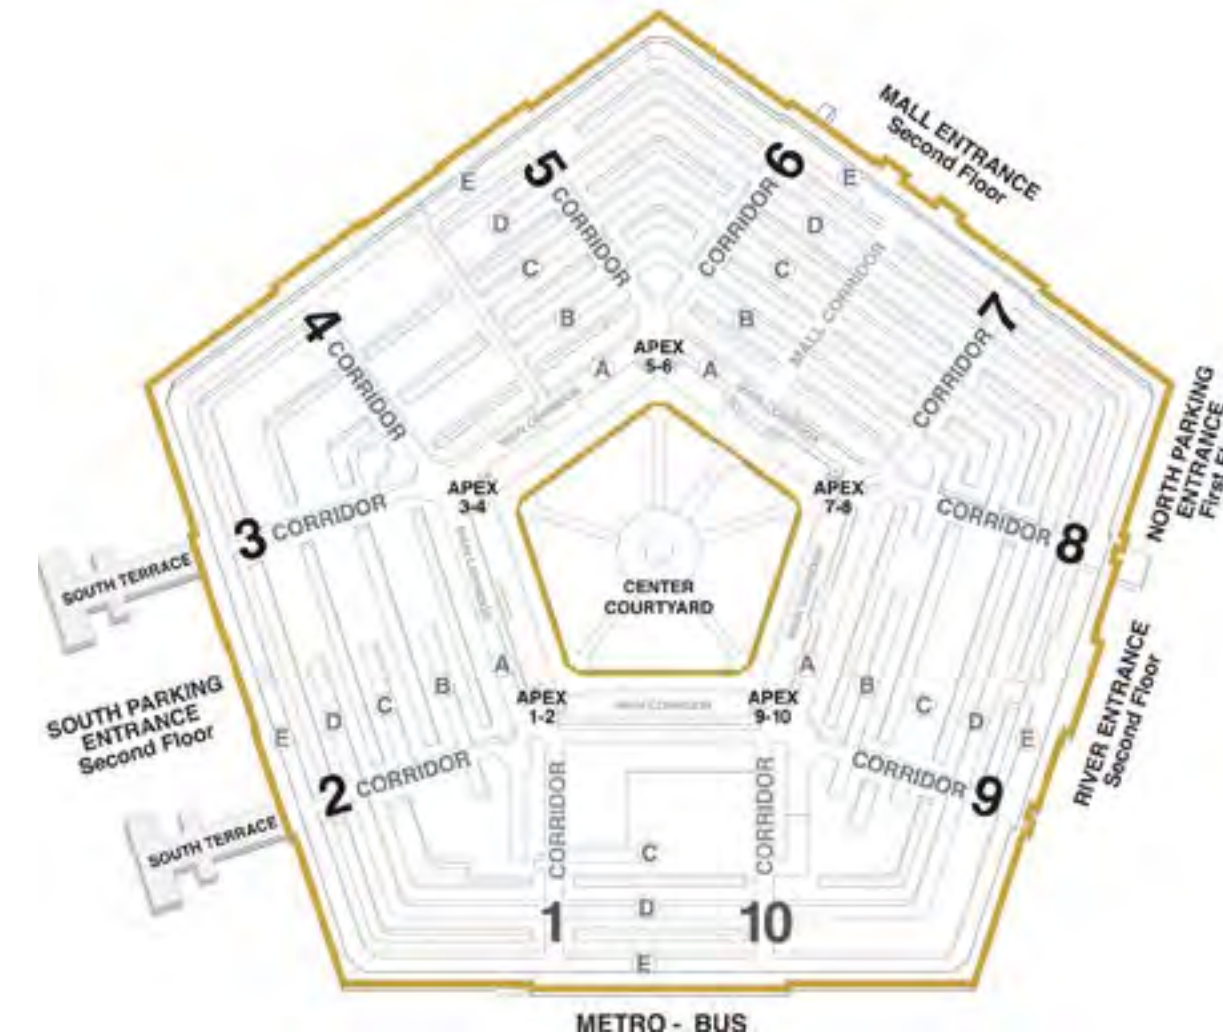

OTHER ENTRANCES WITH LIMITED ACCESS/EGRESS:

- ◆ Corridor 8/North Parking Entrance on the first floor, E ring, located on the East side of the building, 5:00 am to 8:00 pm Monday through Friday.
- ◆ The Corridor 5 Entrance on the first floor, E ring, located on the West side of the building, 5:00 am to 8:00 pm Monday through Friday.
- ◆ River Entrance on the second floor, E ring, located on the East side of the building, 5:00 am to 8:00 pm, Monday through Friday.

NAVIGATING THE PENTAGON

HOW TO FIND A ROOM IN THE PENTAGON

The Pentagon is a five-story building with five concentric rings, labeled A through E, built around a center courtyard. Ten spoke-like corridors connect the rings. Two corridors radiate outward from each A ring joint, called an apex, to the E ring (the outermost ring). In any corridor, refer to the room numbers at each doorway to locate a specific suite or inner hallway.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◆ The Pentagon has 5 concentric rings and 10 intersecting corridors.
- ◆ The innermost and outermost rings provide access to all of the building's interior points on all floors.
- ◆ This section contains detailed information about how to interpret room numbers and navigate the building.

CONTACTS:

Pentagon Building Management Office: 703-697-7351 or see <https://my.whs.mil/services/pentagon-building-management-office>.

Half-corridors, located between the 10 numbered corridors, bisect the main rings.

Several locations on the first floor, the mezzanine (at the River and Mall entrances), and the basement contain additional rings, labeled F, G, H, J, and K.

Rings A and E are designed to allow people to walk all the way around the building.

Connected to all 10 corridors, the A ring is the most effective route to navigate the building. Starting from the A ring, select a corridor and walk that hallway, crossing the outer rings until the one desired is reached. Weather permitting, cut across the Center Courtyard to decrease the walking distance.

Room numbers can be interpreted as follows:

- ◆ The first number or letter indicates the floor (B = Basement, M = Mezzanine, 1-5 = floors).
- ◆ The second letter specifies the ring. The main rings are designated A, B, C, D, and E. Rings F, G, H, J, and K are located in the basement.
- ◆ After the ring is the corridor. Corridors are designated 1-10.
- ◆ The last two digits indicate the specific bay or room number assigned to an office.

For example, Office BE834 is located in the basement, on the E ring, in corridor 8, in room 34.

Kiosks that provide location information are conveniently placed throughout the Pentagon.

SERVICES FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

DOD OFFICE OF DIVERSITY MANAGEMENT AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The DoD complies strictly with Federal laws and regulations requiring that people with disabilities have equal access to Federal facilities (e.g., the Architectural Barriers Act). In addition, the DoD complies with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (29 U.S.C. 794d), which requires that when Federal agencies develop, procure, maintain, or use electronic and information technology, Federal employees with disabilities have access to and use of information and data that is comparable to the access and use by Federal employees who are not individuals with disabilities.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◆ The WHS Facility Accessibility Task Force (FATF) advocates for persons with disabilities in buildings owned and operated by WHS, ensures that facilities are accessible, and facilitates engagement with facility management. The FATF solicits, analyzes, and shares all stakeholder's mobility issues and concerns that may arise from building constraints, new construction, renovation activities, signage, and operation of facilities on WHS-owned and operated properties. It strives to promote collaboration and ensure accessibility. Tenants may learn more about the task force at: <https://my.whs.mil/services/accessibility>
- ◆ Evacuation Chairs
- ◆ Evacuation chairs, located near elevators, are designed to transport seated persons up or down stairs and over flat surfaces.
- ◆ The Computer/Electronic Accommodations Program Technology Evaluation Center (CAPTEC) provides assistive technologies and services for a broad range of disabilities. Sign language interpreters can also be requested through CAPTEC.
- ◆ OSD personnel with disabilities (civilians) can have individualized emergency response plans developed for them. Other DoD Components provide similar services.
- ◆ Designated parking is available. Pentagon shuttle buses, which provide service for people with disabilities, are available upon request with 24-hour advance notification.
- ◆ Federal Relay Conference Captioning Service (FEDRCC)
- ◆ FEDRCC is a closed captioning service available free of charge to federal agencies to assist individuals with hearing impairments at meetings and events. To schedule a closed captioning session at your next meeting or event, visit <https://www.sprintrelay.com/federal> to submit a request.
- ◆ Mobility scooters are available to DoD personnel who require assistance navigating the Pentagon.

Supervisors in organizations serviced by the WHS Human Resources Directorate may call the WHS & PFFPA Office of the General Counsel for assistance regarding reasonable accommodations for their employees.

People with disabilities may obtain assistance from the DiLorenzo TRICARE Health Clinic, including occupational health services through the Civilian Employees Health Service; and health education classes, fitness testing, and exercise prescription through the Fit-to-Win/Wellness Program. Assistance with personal problems and stress management is available through the Employee Assistance Program (EAP).

CAPTEC ELECTRONIC PROGRAM

The Computer/Electronic Accommodations Program (CAP) provides assistive technology and services to people with a broad range of disabilities, and provides services to federal managers, supervisors, IT professionals, and wounded service members.

CAP's Technology Evaluation Center (CAPTEC) is dedicated to the evaluation, demonstration, and procurement of assistive technologies, technology for workstations and telecommunications. CAPTEC provides information about the types of equipment available, completes needs assessments, compares different solutions, and ensures that assistive technologies that users select will be compatible with the specific needs.

If you require assistance, please contact CAPTEC in person or via video-teleconferencing (VTC).

EMERGENCY EVACUATION PLANS FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

As part of emergency planning, building occupants who need special assistance may have individual emergency evacuation plans developed for them. Please call the Office of the Pentagon Fire Marshal at 703-695-3300 or submit a request via email to fireinfo@mail.mil. Plans address specialized mobility and notification requirements, office "buddies," and tailored egress routes.

PARKING SERVICES

Parking permits for people with disabilities are available for the North and South Parking Lots. To initiate requests, individuals must contact their Component Parking Representative (CPR), or call the PMO at 703-697-6251 for additional guidance.

MOBILITY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM/ MOBILITY SCOOTER PROGRAM

In WHS, the Mobility Assistance and Mobility Scooter Programs are jointly operated by the Facilities Services Directorate (FSD) and the Human Resources Directorate (HRD). The programs are available to employees and visitors who have temporary mobility impairments. The Pentagon Safety Office within FSD is the organization that provides electric scooters in lieu of traditional wheelchairs. The program currently has approximately 40 scooters, which may be used for up to 90 days, and may be assigned in 30 day increments.

Individuals can request scooters to assist with a temporary condition, such as an injury or post-surgical restriction lasting a few weeks or up to 90 days. Requests are submitted to HRD, Labor and Management Employee Relations Division (LMER). All requests require submission of a position description/summary of duties and a medical justification signed by a medical practitioner. If a request is approved, the scooter is issued by and returned to the Pentagon Safety Office. This office can be reached at 703-693-3683.

An individual with mobility impairments who has permanent need for a scooter but who does not qualify for one may choose to purchase his or her own. Individuals who need assistance on a long-term or permanent basis should contact their supervisors about the potential for reasonable accommodation.

If an individual needs a scooter for just one to three days' use, they can request a scooter directly from the Pentagon Safety Office. These scooters are available on a first-come first-served basis.

PENTAGON TOURS FOR PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

The Pentagon is accessible via ramps and elevators. Tour visitors in wheelchairs must be accompanied by individuals who will push them. An American Sign Language Interpreter will be added to tours to assist visitors who are deaf or hard of hearing, provided that arrangements are made two weeks in advance. Special tours for visually impaired visitors can also be arranged with two weeks notice.

THE PENTAGON DIGITAL SIGNAGE – VISUAL X (FORMERLY INFONET)

The Pentagon Digital Signage – Visual X (Formerly InfoNet) is the primary multimedia digital signage solution for over 200 programs within the DoD with over 60 display systems. Digital Signage – Visual X messages provide official, timely and accurate emergency and unclassified non-sensitive information to include special announcements, events, training and safety awareness throughout the Pentagon Reservation, Mark Center, and other DoD locations within the National Capital Region. In addition to offering a high impact visual platform in public access areas, it is a platform for the Digital Signage to disseminate emergency messages from the Pentagon Force Protection Agency's Pentagon Operations Center, alerting readers regarding any potential dangers and providing safety instructions, thereby reaching those who may not be able to hear loudspeaker announcements.

PENTAGON SECURITY

PENTAGON FORCE PROTECTION AGENCY

PFPA is responsible for safety and security on the Pentagon Reservation in accordance with Title 32, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 234, "Conduct on the Pentagon Reservation". PFPA is also mandated to protect and safeguard personnel, visitors, infrastructure, and other Pentagon resources, and it provides security for DoD occupied facilities within the NCR.

Services that PFPA is chartered to provide include:

- ◆ Security for all Pentagon facilities.
- ◆ Law enforcement and investigation of violations of federal laws and regulations in all Pentagon facilities.

At the Pentagon's Remote Delivery Facility (RDF), PFPA uses multiple technologies to screen all incoming mail and packages for possible hazards, including all overnight deliveries, as well as concessionaire items, such as food and flowers. Each day, the agency screens an average of 3,900 items, including mail, packages, and parcels.

All personnel are reminded that items sent to the Pentagon Reservation are for official government business only. There should be no mailing of personal items to the Pentagon.

Among PFPA's other responsibilities are lock installation and services (including security alarms); disposal of classified waste; and access control (including access credentials).

PENTAGON RESERVATION EMERGENCY RESPONSE PROGRAM

PFPA is responsible for preparing occupants of the Pentagon Reservation to respond to life-threatening hazards. The Pentagon Reservation Emergency Response Program consists of a broad range of protective capabilities, ranging from sophisticated Chemical, Biological, Radiological, Nuclear and Explosives (CBRNE) detection systems, to highly trained emergency response professionals.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◆ In coordination with the Office of the Pentagon Fire Marshal (OPFM), the Pentagon Force Protection Agency (PFPA) prepares Pentagon Reservation occupants to respond to life threatening emergencies.

The Office of the Pentagon Fire Marshal manages fire egress routes and assigns personnel assembly areas for the Pentagon Reservation. OPFM provides egress maps for all Pentagon Reservation offices. OPFM has developed an emergency egress tutorial, located on the Fire Marshal’s website. See <https://my.whs.mil/services/fire>.

Component Emergency Response on the Pentagon provides occupants with information about Pentagon emergency response capabilities and defines individual occupant responsibilities should an emergency.

The Pentagon Reservation Occupant Emergency Response Guide describes procedures for sheltering occupants in their offices, moving them out of harm’s way through relocation within the building, and/or evacuating them to outside locations. Critical to the success of the program is an educated, informed, and cooperative building occupant—that means you.

The Pentagon Reservation Component Emergency Response Guide provides guidance and direction to Pentagon Component emergency managers and supervisors.

All building occupants are responsible for:

Understanding and executing agency response plans, which incorporate PFFA’s three emergency responses (shelter in place, relocate, and evacuate).

Assembling an individual “go-kit” of emergency items (highly recommended). It can be used during an extended shelter-in-place situation or after decontamination operations.

Advising supervisors of any special needs.

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE TRAINING

It is DoD policy that initial and annual Counterintelligence Awareness and Reporting (CIAR) training be provided annually to all DoD personnel on foreign intelligence entity (FIE) threats, methods, reportable information, and reporting procedures. Please consult your office’s Security Manager about this training requirement.

INSIDER THREAT TRAINING

Pursuant to Public Law 114-328, Section 951 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017, Executive Order 13587, and DoD Directive 5205.16, all personnel are required to receive initial and periodic insider threat training (virtual or in-person). Please consult your security management team about this requirement, and also to report insider threat concerns.

OTHER SECURITY ISSUES

There are other security implications of working in Pentagon facilities given the classified nature of national security activities and materials. Please request a detailed briefing from your office’s Security Manager.

In addition, PFFA, in partnership with the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), launched a public awareness campaign aimed at encouraging Pentagon employees, visitors, and commuters to report suspicious activity: “If You See Something, Say Something™”. To report suspicious activity, please call: 703-692-2SAY(2729).

DoD is implementing a digital service for official mail that cuts down on processing time and improves accountability. The new Digital Delivery Mail Program (DDMP) is part of several DoD-wide efforts in business management reform.

The online delivery options for physical mail will affect roughly 26,000 DoD employees.

The Defense Post Office (DPO) currently processes up to 13,000 pieces of mail daily. The DDMP cuts the time for manual processing by up to three hours.

HIGHLIGHTS:

The new digital mail system will do the following:

- ◆ Increase speed
- ◆ Enhance security
- ◆ Improve productivity
- ◆ Ensure continuity of operations
- ◆ Reduce costs over time

Vending machines are located throughout the Pentagon.

Retail and personalized services include:

- ◆ The U.S. Post Office
- ◆ The Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles (for Pentagon employees only)
- ◆ Pentagon Federal Credit Union, Navy Federal Credit Union

The Department of Defense Concessions Committee (DoDCC) oversees all food services, retail establishments, and vending machines on the Pentagon Reservation.

PENTAGON TOURS AND MEMORIALS

PENTAGON TOURS

The Pentagon's tour program began on May 17, 1976 to support the nation's bicentennial celebration. The program hosts more than 100,000 visitors annually.

The tour route is approximately one-and-one-half miles long and requires approximately 60 minutes to complete. Each tour covers 20 topics of interest related to the mission of the Department of Defense and the military departments. See "Exhibits" subsection.

The Pentagon tour window is located just inside the visitor waiting area at the Pentagon Metro entrance. A security briefing is provided prior to each tour, and all visitors must pass through an airport-type security scanning device. No photographs may be taken. No video cameras, tape recorders, or any other kind of electronic recording device is permitted at any time.

The tour program is a Joint Service operation consisting of approximately 25 hand-picked, active-duty personnel from the military ceremonial units of the National Capitol Region (NCR). Upon arrival, each tour guide must successfully complete a two-week training course and an additional two weeks of on-the-job training. Tour guides are assigned to the program for a period of one year, after which they rotate back to their respective units.

OUTSIDE THE BUILDING

The following sites are located outside the Pentagon building and are open to the public.

Sites at the Pentagon

The Pentagon Memorial, located on the West side of the Pentagon (towards the southern end), is dedicated to those who lost their lives on September 11, 2001. Architects Julie Beckman and Keith Kaseman, of the Kaseman Beckman Amsterdam Studio, participated in a worldwide competition to develop a concept for the Memorial. An independent panel of architects, members of victims' families, and public figures in the Washington, DC area, including two former Secretaries of Defense, chose their winning design from more than 1,100 submissions.

The landscaped 1.93-acre site contains 184 inscribed Memorial units honoring the 125 individuals who perished inside the Pentagon and the 58 individuals who died on board American Airlines Flight 77. Each of the 184 Memorial units consists of a cantilevered bench inscribed with the victim's name and a pool of flowing water lit from below. The Memorial also serves as a timeline of the victims' ages, from the youngest victim, three-year-old Dana Falkenberg, to the oldest, U.S. Navy Captain John Yarnicky (ret.), 71.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◆ Three sites commemorate the 9/11 attacks, one just outside and two inside the building. All are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- ◆ The Pentagon Memorial, located outdoors, does not require access to the Pentagon.
- ◆ More than 100 exhibits currently on display.
- ◆ Free group tours are available to schools, educational organizations, and other groups.
- ◆ Tours are conducted from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm, Monday through Friday

Access to the Pentagon Memorial

The Memorial is accessible to the general public by Metro transit, private vehicle, and private tour bus. Due to parking constraints, the public is urged to use Metro.

- ◆ Metro Transit: The Blue and Yellow lines serve the Pentagon Metro stop. There are also many commuter bus routes that stop at the Pentagon Transit Center. The Pentagon Transit Center and the Pentagon City Metro stop are both within walking distance of the Pentagon Memorial. The Arlington Metro stop may be another option for tourists who wish to visit the September 11 group marker at the cemetery, as well as the Pentagon Memorial.

- ◆ Tour Bus: The Pentagon drop off and pick up locations (no parking or loitering) are in the Hayes Street Parking Lot.
- ◆ Private Vehicle: Private vehicles may off-load and pick up passengers at the North Rotary Road Kiss and Drop points, but cannot park or idle at these locations. Parking regulations are strictly enforced at the Pentagon. Metered parking is available on the streets in Crystal City and Pentagon City. Parking for a fee may be available in commercial lots a short walk or Metro ride from the Pentagon.

Public parking is available to Pentagon Memorial visitors only at the Hayes Street Parking Lot, located directly across the street from the Pentagon City Mall from 5:00 am to 5:00 pm Monday through Friday, and all day on weekends and holidays. A pedestrian tunnel under I-395 leads to the Pentagon from the Hayes Street Lot. After exiting the tunnel, follow the signs to the Memorial Gateway.

Memorial Parking for People with Mobility

Impairments: There are five parking spaces available in Lane 1 of the Pentagon South Parking Lot, adjacent to the Memorial Park, for visitors with disabilities. These spaces are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. All vehicles using these parking spaces must display valid disabled parking permit issued by the state or other jurisdiction in which the vehicles are registered.

The Air Force Memorial

Dedicated on October 14, 2006, the Air Force Memorial honors the men and women who have served in the U.S. Air Force and its predecessor organizations (i.e. the Aeronautical Division, U.S. Signal Corps; the Aviation Section, U.S. Signal Corps; the Division of Military Aeronautics, Secretary of War; the Army Air Service; the U.S. Army Air Corps; and the U.S. Army Air Forces) dating back more than 100 years.

Bold and graceful, the Memorial Design is intended to evoke flight and the flying spirit. Central to the design are three stainless the Pentagon, the Potomac River, and Washington, D.C. It is open April 1—September 30, from 8:00 AM to 11:00 PM; and October 1—March 31 from 8:00 AM to 9:00 PM.

INSIDE THE BUILDING

Memorials and historical exhibits and displays located inside the Pentagon can only be viewed by members of the public on an official Pentagon tour or accompanied by an approved escort.

The America's Heroes Memorial

The America's Heroes Memorial opened in September 2002 on the site where American Airlines Flight 77 struck the Pentagon.

The memorial includes a book of photographs and biographies of the victims. It also includes five large black acrylic panels, which honor the 184 victims of the crash. One panel displays the Purple Heart medal awarded to military personnel killed; another shows steel spires that soar skyward, with the highest reaching 270 feet above the 3-acre elevated promontory site. The spires express the strength of the Air Force. The number three signifies the Air force's core values: "Integrity first, Service before self, and Excellence in all we do."

Other key elements of the Memorial include an always-present bronze Honor Guard, an Air Force Heritage/Core Value inscription wall, a Courage/ Sacrifice/ Valor inscription wall, and the Missing Man Formation glass contemplation wall, all landscaped to create a memorial lawn and parade ground overlooking the nation's capital.

Architect James Ingo Freed, designed the Memorial, and other Washington D.C. landmarks, including the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C. Private donors raised $30 million to pay for the Memorial.

The Memorial, within walking distance of the Pentagon Metro Station, is adjacent to Arlington National Cemetery and overlooks the Medal of Valor given to civilians. Pencils and commemorative tracing paper are available, so visitors can make rubbings of the names. A small chapel includes stained glass windows that incorporate patriotic designs.

The memorial and chapel are open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

The Navy Reflection Room

The Navy Reflection Room (1D463) was formerly the site of the Navy Operations Center, destroyed during the 9/11 attack. At the center of the small room stands a large stone monolith, donated by the Pentagon Renovation Program, bearing the header "Lest We Forget". An American flag stands at one side of the monolith and a Navy Departmental flag stands at the other side. Inscribed in the adjacent wall is an excerpt from World War I poet Lawrence Binyon's "For the Fallen." Nearby is a limestone reflection bench, also donated by the Pentagon Renovation Program.

The room is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
